MEMORIALIZING PARTITION

February 22nd and 23rd 2017 | A two day workshop
Room 56 Arts Faculty, University of Delhi

To honor the 70th anniversary of Partition, Memorializing Partition is a two-day workshop that will explore recent academic, artistic, and community efforts to remember, memorialize, and revisit the 1947 Partition. Through a series of guest lectures, discussion sessions, screenings of recently collected oral histories, as well as other activities, the workshop will explore both the seeming collective public amnesia around the memory of Partition, as well as the ethical concerns and sensitivities that require careful consideration when seeking to preserve or revisit the memory of Partition.
